

MODEL APPRAISAL POLICY FOR DORSET SCHOOLS

May 2012

INTRODUCTION

Revised appraisal arrangements come into force on 1st September 2012. They are set out in the Education (School Teachers' Appraisal) Regulations 2011 which replace The Education (School Teacher Performance Management) (England) Regulations 2006.

This policy applies only to teachers, including headteachers, but schools might wish to adapt it for use with all staff. It has been written in the context of schools, but the same principles apply to centrally employed teachers.

It is good practice for schools to consult staff on their appraisal policies.

In this model policy, text in bold covers information that is required by the new Appraisal Regulations or by School Staffing Regulations.

An effective appraisal process should:

- Identify, celebrate and disseminate good practice
- Identify areas for staff to improve their professional skills
- Identify performance that is below the standard expected and provide a supportive system to improve performance
- Be an integral part of a school's self-evaluation process.

MODEL APPRAISAL POLICY

The Governing Body of Yewstock School adopted this policy on 11th July 2012.

Date of review: July 2013

APPLICATION OF THE POLICY

The policy applies to the headteacher and to all teachers employed by the school except teachers on contracts of less than one term, those undergoing induction (i.e. NQTs) and those who are the subject of capability procedures. Appraisal is central to both school improvement and teachers' personal development, as on-going supportive process.

PURPOSE

This policy sets out the framework for a clear and consistent assessment of the overall appraisal of teachers, including the headteacher, and for supporting their development within the context of the school's improvement plan, and the standards expected of teachers.

THE APPRAISAL CYCLE

- The appraisal period will normally run from October to September.
- The appraisal cycle will run on an annual basis. Appraisal planning and reviews must be completed for all teachers by 31 October and for headteachers by 31 December.
- Teachers, who are employed on a fixed term contract of less than one year, will have their appraisal managed in accordance with the principles underpinning the provisions of this policy. The length of the cycle will be determined by the duration of their contract.
- Where a teacher starts their employment at the school part-way through a cycle, the headteacher or, in the case where the teacher is the headteacher, the governing body shall determine the length of the first cycle for that teacher, with a view to bringing his cycle into line with the cycle for other teachers at the school as soon as possible.
- Where a teacher transfers to a new post within the school part-way through a cycle, the headteacher or, in the case where the teacher is the headteacher, the governing body shall determine whether the cycle shall begin again and whether to change the reviewer.

APPOINTMENT OF REVIEWERS FOR THE HEADTEACHER

- The headteacher will be appraised by the Governing Body, supported by an external adviser.

APPOINTMENT OF REVIEWERS FOR TEACHERS

- All reviewers must be appropriately trained to review appraisal effectively and ensure equal treatment.
- In the case where the headteacher is not the teacher's line manager, the headteacher may delegate the duties imposed upon the reviewer, in their entirety, to the teacher's line manager. In this school the headteacher has decided that:

The headteacher will be the reviewer for those teachers s/he directly line manages and will delegate the role of reviewer, in its entirety, to the relevant line managers for other teachers.

The maximum number of appraisees that any line manager will be expected to undertake per cycle is 5 (but would usually be fewer).

- Where a teacher is of the opinion that the person to whom the headteacher has delegated the reviewer's duties is unsuitable for professional reasons, s/he may submit a written request to the headteacher for that reviewer to be replaced, stating those reasons.
- Where it becomes apparent that the reviewer will be absent for the majority of the cycle or is unsuitable for professional reasons the headteacher may perform the duties himself/herself or delegate them in their entirety to another teacher.
- Where this teacher is not the appraisee's line manager the teacher will have an equivalent or higher status in the staffing structure as the teacher's line manager.
- All line managers to whom the headteacher has delegated the role of reviewer will receive appropriate preparation for that role.

OBJECTIVE SETTING

- The objectives agreed with each appraisee will contribute to the school's plans for school improvement, improving pupil progress and the professional development of the teacher.
- The objectives set will be rigorous, challenging, achievable, time-bound, fair and equitable in relation to teachers with similar roles/responsibilities and experience. They should reflect the need for a satisfactory work-life balance.
- They shall also take account of the teacher's professional aspirations and any relevant pay progression criteria, including preparation for threshold application.
- The reviewer and appraisee will seek to agree the objectives but where a joint determination cannot be made the reviewer will make the determination. The objectives must be reasonable within the timescale allowed.
- Appraisees who have responsibilities outside the classroom should normally expect to have objectives related to those responsibilities included, e.g. leadership of a subject.

In this school (choose as applicable):

- all teachers will have no more than 3 objectives. Members of the Leadership Team and those with a Teaching and Learning Responsibility (TLR) will have 4. However, in certain circumstances (e.g. for part-time staff) fewer than 3 would be appropriate; in exceptional circumstances it may be acceptable to set more than 3 objectives but the workload attached to these must be proportionate to the workload involved in 3 objectives.
- Teachers, including the headteacher, will not necessarily all have the same number of objectives.
- Though appraisal is an assessment of the overall appraisal of teachers and the headteacher, objectives cannot cover the full range of a teacher's roles or responsibilities. Objectives will, therefore, focus on the priorities for an individual for the cycle.

- At the review stage it will be assumed that those aspects of a teacher's roles or responsibilities not covered by the objectives or any amendment to the statement which may have been necessary in accordance with the provisions of the regulations and professional standards have been carried out satisfactorily.

REVIEWING PROGRESS TOWARDS MEETING OBJECTIVES

Observation

- The number and type of classroom observation will depend on the individual circumstances of the appraisee and the overall needs of the school. Normally no more than three visits will be made unless additional visits are required to address significant concerns have been identified and these have been documented with appropriate evidence.
- In any observation of a teacher's practice, clear criteria about how that practice will be judged should be established and shared with the teacher before any observation has taken place.
- Appendix 1 is a model observation policy and it is strongly recommended that schools adopt this policy.
- Schools will need to decide whether or not to grade observations for the purpose of appraisal and what criteria will be used; whatever system is chosen, it is important that it is developmental.
- In addition to formal observation, head teachers or other leaders may "drop in" in order to evaluate the standards of teaching and learning and to check that high standards of professional performance are established and maintained. This will be part of the school's self-evaluation and is not part of the appraisal process. It is recommended that schools have a protocol for drop-in visits.

Development and Support

Appraisal is a supportive process which will be used to inform continuing professional development. The school wishes to encourage a culture in which all teachers take responsibility for improving their teaching through appropriate professional development. Professional development will be linked to school improvement priorities and to the ongoing professional development needs and priorities of individual teachers.

Feedback

Appraisees will receive feedback on their performance throughout the year and as soon as practicable after any observation. Mid-year review meetings will take place for all teachers.

Appraisal

- At the end of the cycle, each appraisee's performance will be formally assessed.
- This assessment is the end point to the formal process but performance and development priorities will be considered and addressed on a continuous basis throughout the year in a series of informal meetings which will take place (e.g. once a term). This process should not lead to additional objectives being set but there could be modification to existing objectives.
- There should not be any 'surprises' at the end of the review period. If the reviewer has any concerns about performance, these should be discussed with the appraisee as soon as possible so that s/he has an opportunity to address these issues.

YEWSTOCK SCHOOL

- The appraisee will receive – and have the opportunity to comment on - a written appraisal report. The appraisal report will include:
 - ◆ Details of the appraisee's objectives;
 - ◆ an assessment of the appraisee's performance against their objectives for the relevant period and the relevant standards expected of teachers, having regard to their job description/role in the school;
 - ◆ a determination of the teacher's training and development needs and the actions that will be taken to address them;
 - ◆ a recommendation on pay where relevant

TRAINING AND SUPPORT

- The school wishes to encourage a culture in which all teachers expect to undertake a programme of continuing professional development that is linked to school improvement priorities and to their own individual ongoing professional development priorities and needs.
- The school's CPD programme will be informed by the training and development needs identified in the training annex of the appraisees' planning and review statements.
- The governing body will ensure in the budget planning that, as far as possible, appropriate resources are made available in the school budget for any training and support agreed for appraisees.
- An account of the training and development needs of teachers in general, including the instances where it did not prove possible to provide any agreed CPD, will form a part of the headteacher's annual report to the governing body about the operation of the appraisal in the school.

TEACHERS EXPERIENCING DIFFICULTIES

When dealing with a teacher experiencing difficulties, the objective is to provide support and guidance through the appraisal process in such a way that the teacher's performance improves and the problem is, therefore, resolved.

Where it is apparent that a teacher's personal circumstances are leading to difficulties at school, support will be offered as soon as possible, without waiting for the formal annual assessment.

If an appraiser identifies through the appraisal process, or via other sources of information, for example parental complaints, that the difficulties experienced by a teacher are such that, if not rectified, could lead to capability procedures the appraiser, the head teacher, or a member of the leadership team, will, as part of the appraisal process meet the teacher to:

- give clear written feedback to the teacher about the nature and seriousness of the concerns;
- give the teacher the opportunity to comment on and discuss the concerns;
- give the teacher at least 5 working days' notice that a meeting will be held to discuss targets for improvement alongside a programme of support, and inform the teacher that he/she has the right to be assisted by a representative of an independent trade union or work place colleague, and at any future meetings where capability will be discussed;
- in consultation with the teacher at the above meeting, an action plan with support will be established (for example coaching, training, in-class support, mentoring, structured observations, visits to other classes or schools or discussions with advisory teachers), that will help address those specific concerns;

YEWSTOCK SCHOOL

- make clear how progress will be monitored and when it will be reviewed;
- explain the implications and process if no – or insufficient – improvement is made.

The teacher's progress will continue to be monitored as part of the appraisal process and a reasonable time given for the teacher's performance to improve. This will depend upon the circumstances, but will be for a period of weeks, with appropriate support as agreed in the Action Plan, in order that the aim of recovering and improving performance can be achieved. During this monitoring period the teacher will be given regular feedback on progress and arrangements will be made to modify the support programme if appropriate.

If sufficient progress is made such that the teacher is performing at a level that indicates there is no longer a possibility of capability procedures being invoked the teacher should be informed of this at a formal meeting with the appraiser or head teacher. Following this meeting the appraisal process will continue as normal.

If no, or insufficient, improvement has been made over this period, the teacher will be invited to a transition meeting to determine whether formal capability proceedings need to be commenced or the appraisal process remains in place. The teacher may be assisted by a trade union representative or work colleague and will have at least 5 working days notice of the meeting.

APPEALS

- At specified points in the appraisal process teachers and headteachers have a right of appeal against any of the entries in their planning and review statements.
- Where an appraisee wishes to appeal on the basis of more than one entry this would constitute one appeal hearing.
- Appeals will be heard by the headteacher (unless the headteacher is the reviewer, where the appeal will be heard by a nominated governor). If this does not resolve the appeal, a panel of three governors will review the appeal.

CONFIDENTIALITY

- The whole appraisal process and the statements generated under it, in particular, will be treated with strict confidentiality at all times.
- Only the headteacher and the appraisee's line manager or, where s/he has more than one, each of her/his line managers will be provided with access to the appraisee's plan recorded in her/his statement, upon request, where this is necessary to enable the line manager to discharge her/his line management responsibilities. Appraisees will be told who has requested and has been granted access.

MONITORING AND EVALUATION

- The governing body will monitor the operation and outcomes of appraisal arrangements.
- The headteacher will provide the governing body with a written report on the operation of the school's appraisal policy annually. The report will not contain any information which would enable any individual to be identified. The report will include:
 - ◆ the operation of the appraisal policy;
 - ◆ the effectiveness of the school's appraisal procedures;
 - ◆ teachers' training and development needs.

YEWSTOCK SCHOOL

- The headteacher will also report on whether there have been any appeals or representations on an individual or collective basis on the grounds of alleged discrimination under any of the categories above.

CONSISTENCY OF TREATMENT AND FAIRNESS

- The Governing Body is committed to ensuring consistency of treatment and fairness in the operation of appraisal.
- To ensure this the following provisions are made in relation to moderation, quality assurance and objective setting.

Quality assurance

The headteacher has determined that s/he will delegate the reviewer role for some or all teachers for whom s/he is not the line manager. The headteacher will moderate all the planning statements to check that the plans recorded in the statements of teachers at the school:

- are consistent between those who have similar experience and similar levels of responsibility
- comply with the school's appraisal policy, the regulations and the requirements of equality legislation

This policy should be read in conjunction with the Single Equality Policy. The general equality duty requires that, in the exercise of their functions, schools must have due regard to the need to eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment, victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Equality Act 2010. This school endeavours to advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations for all.

Reviewed by P&C Committee	27 th June 2012
Date of next review	11 th July 2013
Date adopted by Full Governing Body	11th July 2012

ANNEX 1 – CLASSROOM OBSERVATION PROTOCOL

The Governing Body is committed to ensuring that classroom observation is developmental and supportive and that those involved in the process will:

- carry out the role with professionalism, integrity and courtesy;
- evaluate objectively;
- report accurately and fairly; and
- respect the confidentiality of the information gained.

The arrangements for classroom observation will be included in the planning statement at the start of the cycle and will include the amount of observation and specify its primary purpose, any particular aspects of the teacher's performance to be assessed, the duration of the observation, when during the performance management cycle the observation will take place and who will conduct the observation.

Information gathered during the observation will be used, as appropriate, for a variety of purposes, including to inform school self-evaluation and school-improvement strategies in accordance with the school's commitment to streamlining data collection and minimising bureaucracy and workload burdens on teachers. Information gathered from classroom observation will assist the head teacher in the exercise of her/his duty to evaluate the standards of teaching and learning and to ensure that proper standards of professional performance are established and maintained.

In keeping with the commitment to supportive and developmental classroom observation, those being observed will be notified in advance.

Classroom observations will only be undertaken by persons with qualified teacher status (QTS). Classroom observation will only be undertaken by those who have had adequate preparation and who have the appropriate professional skills to undertake observation and to provide constructive oral and written feedback and support, in the context of professional dialogue between colleagues.

Oral feedback will be given as soon as possible after the observation and no later than the end of the following working day. It should be given during directed time (schools should make provision for this when allocating the 1265 hours directed time) in a suitable, private environment.

Written feedback will be provided within five working days of the observation taking place. If issues emerged from an observation that were not part of the focus of the observation as recorded in the planning and review statement, these should also be covered in the written feedback and the appropriate action discussed with the teacher.

The written record of feedback will include the date on which the observation took place, the lesson observed and the length of the observation. The teacher has the right to append written comments on the feedback document. No written notes in addition to the written feedback will be kept.